Looking for an organization where you can find professional development and training, network with members of your profession and have your views known to policymakers?

The American Association for Access, Equity and Diversity (AAAED) is the organization that you have been searching for.

Forty Years of Leadership

AAAED is the leader in Equal Opportunity, affirmative action and diversity training and education for professionals in higher education, private industry and government.

Who We Are

About Us

Founded in 1974 as the American Association for Affirmative Action (AAAA), AAAED has four decades of leadership in providing professional training to members, enabling them to be more successful and productive in their careers. It also promotes understanding and advocacy of affirmative action and other equal opportunity and related compliance laws to enhance the tenets of access, inclusion and equality in employment, economic and educational opportunities.

The Fund for Leadership, Equity, Access and Diversity (The LEAD Fund), established in 2011, is a “Think and Do” Tank. It provides thought leadership in promoting inclusive organizations and institutions by providing research and education on issues related to diversity, social responsibility, human and civil rights.
